Sci-fi Fantasy Lovecraftian RPG game Elder Rune Name: The Refined "The Refined is an old RPG with new creative ideas you have not seen in Japanese games. If you are looking for a game that challenges you and makes you feel like your in an adventure no matter how hard your level is, The Refined is the game for you. I was curious about what this game would be like. I knew that it would be over the top, but I was unsure of how it would challenge me. This might be the RPG that I would like to play more than any other game. I will be interested to see what it will look like when I level up. Also, the story is something to look forward to, and not everything is cut and dry. If you are looking for a game that challenges you and makes you feel like your in an adventure no matter how hard your level is, The Refined is the game for you."
